STATE BOARD MEETS TO-DAY

Agricultural Body to Have Session—Reward Paid—Requisition Issued.

Judging from the information received to date, State Auditor C.
Lee Moore is satisfied with the result of his appeal to the courts to enforce the revenue laws. In late of Wright the tax returns were given by the judge to the grand jury, that body proceeding at once with its investigation. When other parts of the State are heard from, it is expected it will be found this procedure obtains to some extent.

But in most instances the judges show a desire to read the circular letter sent out by the Auditor and to study his figures and their significance before presenting the matter to the grand jury. This plan is being followed by Judge D. C. Richardson in the Hustings Court of Richmond, and by Judge R. Carter Scott in the Circuit Court of Henrico County. Special grand juries may be summoned at any time, and this will be done by these courts as soon as the judges have so familiarized themselves with the situation as to make a suitable charge to the grand jurors.

Auditor Moore said yesterday that a mistake has been made in some manner regarding his position toward Richmond taxpayers. He has no list of tax dodgers to send to the court, nor has he any communication other than the letter and figures mailed last Saturday. It is not his intention, he said yesterday, to single out any persons as making false returns, that being the duty of the courts.

BOARD MEETS TO-DAY

Auditing Committee on Agriculture Met at Governor's Yesterday.
The State Board of Agriculture will hold its semi-annual meeting in the Capitol this morning at 10 o'clock.
Many matters await its attention, mainly routine in their nature.
The auditing committee of the board should have met yesterday and examined the accounts of the department, but a quorum was not present, and this work was postponed to today.

Money Back If It Doesn't

Don't say "I've read all that before"— just go to your dealer right away, lay down 50c, say, "I want a bottle of that PARISIAN SAGE that so many sensible people are using." Then take it home and use it as directed, and then if you are not satisfied that it is just as advertised, take back the empty bottle and your money will be refunded.

"Pretty risky offer," you'll say; not at all; dealers know just what PARISIAN SAGE will do and have the promise of the American makers, the Groux Mfg.
Co. of Buffalo, N. Y., that they will back him up in his strong guarantee. Pretty fair and square offer, isn't it?

Mrs. J. G. Franklin, Fulton, Mo., writes: "PARISIAN SAGE eradicates dandruff, cleans the scalp and makes the hair fluffy and beautiful; also, is a good hair grower. I shall continue to use it as long as it gives such perfect satisfaction." Ask for PARISIAN SAGE Hair Tonic and firmly refuse substitutes. The girl with the auburn hair on every package and your druggist will tell you that Parisian Sage is a splendid hair dressing free from poisonous lead or other dangerous ingredients. Tragle Drug Co. guarantee it.—Advertisement.

DAISY LEADS AS STATE FLOWER

Voters at the Fair Pick It as Proper Emblem for Virginia.

The William Rufus School Mothers' Club has taken up in earnest the question of a State flower for Virginia.
Under the direction of Mrs. William Gammel, president, a place has been provided in one of the booths near the Industrial Building at the State Fair where all visitors may register their preference in regard to a floral emblem for the State. Up to last night about 350 votes had been cast, of which seventy-five were in favor of the daisy.

As close second to the daisy came the white rose, while the pansy, the magnolia, and even the goldenrod had a number of followers. Only residents of Virginia are allowed to vote in the contest, and but a small propo-tion of these have so far made their selection. The voting place will be maintained until the close of the fair in the hope that an increasing number of persons will take an interest in it.

The plan of the club is to get as many persons as possible to express themselves during the fair and then ask the school children of the State to make their choice. A correct criterion of sentiment over the State may thus be obtained.

HEALTH OF RAILROAD MEN
Dr. E. C. Levy will be speaker at next meeting of club.

The health of railroad men is the subject of the next meeting of the club to be held by Dr. E. C. Levy before the Richmond Railroad Club next regular meeting October 15. The city health officer will be the principal speaker of the evening.

A resolution will be voted upon, having for its object a change of the meeting time from the second Friday in each month to the second Monday.

NOTED INVALID
OF KENTUCKY
After Regaining Her Health, Makes Few Interesting Statements For Publication.

Lynch, Ky.—"For 20 years I was a noted invalid," says Mrs. Martha Dingus of this place. "I believe I had every ailment that my sex is subject to."
We consulted numerous doctors, as well as traveled a great deal, thinking it would benefit my health, but all of this did me very little good.
Finally I was taken down with what I thought was heart trouble. I used all kinds of medicine, but got no better.
I then commenced taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and have been steadily improving ever since. Though now 46 years old, I am in better health than I have been in 20 years, and I give Cardui the credit for it. I feel it my duty to inform you what it has done for me." No matter if your trouble has reached a critical stage, don't give up before giving Cardui a trial.
You couldn't be in much worse condition than Mrs. Dingus, and yet she found relief in this medicine. Why not you?
Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act directly, in a remedial way, on the weakened womanly constitution.
In every community there are those who have been benefited by Cardui. Believe, yourself, in years.

DEMOCRATS FORCE
FIGHT IN NINTH
Ayers in Remote Counties—Trying to Arouse Voters in Other Sections.

General Rufus A. Ayers, who is trying to reach every voter in the Ninth District, will spend the remainder of this week in Dickenson and Buck-annon Counties, far from the railroad, where he will speak to many people who would otherwise have no opportunity to hear him. He has appointments at Grundy, Sand Lick and Clint-wood.
In the court-house of his home county, at Wise, a rally will be held next Monday. General Ayers will be assisted there by Senator Claude A.
Swanson.

During the remaining four weeks of the campaign efforts will be made to arouse the interest of the voters in those sections of the State where the Democratic candidates for Congress have no opposition, or where the Republicans or Progressives have only nominal fights. Henry C. Stuart, nominee for Congress from the Ninth District, will continue his campaign in the Seventh District, covering Warren County this week and many places in Frederick and Shenandoah Counties next week. Congressman H. D.
Flood is busy in the Tenth. He will address Highland county audiences to-day and to-morrow. Mr. Flood will be in Buckingham Saturday and Amherst Monday.

Congressman Carter Glass invades the rockribbed Republican county of Floyd next Wednesday. The only rally planned in the Third District so far is at Middletown Saturday.

EXTENSION LECTURES
FOR CURRENT SEASON
Beginning of Larger Purpose of University to Serve State in Helpful Way.

Charlottesville, Va., October 8.—President Alderman has announced the University of Virginia extension lectures for the current session. In doing so he said:
"Our Republic can no longer rely on an unlimited quantity of untouched wealth, but must depend upon skill and training for the proper development of its resources. The times call imperatively, therefore, for extension education, whose great need will be knowledge and the discipline of exact training.
"The ultimate mission of the State University in America will be to supply this training, not only to the fortunate few who can repair to its walls, but to all the people who constitute the life of the State. Universities must, therefore, in a peculiar sense draw nearer to the people, young and old, in helpfulness and service. This is an old philosophy, indeed, but inspired now by a new and vigorous spirit which will be satisfied with nothing less than a complete and pervasive program.
"University extension is the name given to this great connecting link between every part of a university and the actual conditions of life in the State which the university exists to aid and strengthen. The fundamental ideal of University extension is the ideal of service to democracy as a whole, rather than to individual advancement.
"The University of Virginia, founded by the greatest individualist and Democrat of the age, would be strangely false to its origin and genius if it did not seek to illustrate this idea.
It has, of course, for years sought to render such service in indirect fashion and with limited means. It is now undertaking to inaugurate the great system in a more direct fashion, with the hope that the encouragement it receives will enable it to overcome all obstacles and to realize the great democratic purpose of bringing the University to every fireside and home in the Commonwealth. This sort of University extension necessitates large means, but when its advantages to the elevation of standards and life in the Commonwealth are seen, a sagacious and generous people will not fail, I believe, to provide for the maintenance of so vital an enterprise.
"These extension lectures are but a beginning of a larger purpose of this university to serve the State in helpful ways.
Dr. W. H. Heck, of the department of education, has general charge of the course. He will receive requests for lectures and will assign the lecturers. The course offered is as follows:
R. H. Dabney, professor of history—
"The Influence of the Past Upon the Present."
J. S. Davis, professor of the practice of medicine and pediatrics—"Alcohol and the Human Body." A. M. Dobie, professor of law—"Judges as Arbiters of English." Graham Edgar, associate professor of chemistry—"The Industrial Triumphs of Modern Chemistry." W. H. Faulkner, professor of German languages—"German University Student Life."
Thomas Fitzhugh, professor of Latin —"Greek and Roman Life." J. C. Flippin, professor of clinical medicine—"Home Medication." W. M. Forrest, professor of Biblical history and literature—"The Literary Influence of the English Bible." J. S. Grasty, adjunct professor of economic geology—"The Origin and Age of the Earth."
W. H. Heck, professor of education—
"Hereditary and Education." L. G. Hoxton, associate professor of physics—"Liquid Air and Some Properties of Matter at Low Temperature," or (b) "Spinning-Tops." W. M. Huntley, adjunct professor of political science—"Education for Citizenship."

H. E. Jordan, professor of histology and embryology—"The Effect of War Upon the Face."
C. W. Kent, professor of English literature—"Literature and Travel." W. A. Kepner, adjunct professor of biology—"Animal Adaptations," or (b) "Animal Activities." W. A. Lambeth, professor of hygiene —"How to Know the Tree." Albert Lefevre, professor of philosophy—"Some Common Errors in Thinking."
C. G. Maphis, professor of secondary education—"The High School as a Social Institution." W. T. Myers, adjunct professor of English literature—"Literary Haunts in England."
T. W. Page, professor of economics—
"The Tariff." C. A. Smith, professor of English—"An What Literature Can Do for You," or (b) "The New Method of Learning to Use the English Language Effectively." C. M. Sparrow, adjunct professor of physics—"Soap-Bubbles." W. M. Thornton, professor of applied mathematics—"Good Roads." A. H. Tuttle, professor of biology—
"The Study of Living Things." T. L. Watson, professor of geology—
"The Mineral Resources of Virginia." E. H. Webb, professor of Greek—"The Life of the Ancient Greeks." C. N. Wunder, adjunct professor of astronomy—"The Development of the Solar System."

Invitations Issued.
Fredericksburg, Va., October 8.—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones, of "Elmhurst," this city, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Grace Cunningham Jones, to Lewis Fletcher, of Richmond. The wedding will take place in the Baptist Church here on the evening of Tuesday, October 22, at 6:30 o'clock.

Building Permits.
Building and repair permits were issued yesterday as follows:
T. B. Chaffley, to erect a two-story frame addition in rear of 614 North Twenty-third Street, to cost $450.
Mrs. Frances Bellmont, to erect a one-story brick addition in front of 1273 West Main Street, to cost $250.
Dr. Ben M. Roseboro, to erect a three-story brick dwelling, 417 West Grace Street, to cost $1,500.

DAUGHTERS MEET
IN HARRISONBURG
Annual State Convention Will Be Formally Opened
To-Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch].
Harrisonburg, Va., October 8.—The afternoon train to-day brought in a majority of the delegates to the seventeenth annual State convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which will be formally opened to-morrow morning in Assembly Hall. Additional visitors are expected to-morrow morning. Nearly 300 are expected to attend the exercises which will continue until late Friday night.

To-night the doors of the magnificent new Presbyterian church on Court Square were thrown open and an informal reception was tendered the visitors. For an hour or more the members of the local chapter, together with other representative women of the town and community, met socially the visiting daughters.

The Presbyterian Church, which was completed a year or two ago, is an elegant structure, and is located immediately across the street from the famous Eockingham County Courthouse, in the assembly hall of which the convention proper will hold forth for the next three days.

Situated in the heart of the historical Valley of Virginia, the granary of the Civil War as well as the arena of some of its most famous battles, Harrisonburg is peculiarly fitted for the annual meeting place of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Just to the north is New Market, and a few miles east is Port Republic and also Cross Keys. To the west are the Alleghenies, to the east is the Blue Ridge, the two mountain ranges that played such an important part in the fortunes of the great war.

The music of the three-day convention will be an unusual feature. A chorus composed of nine sopranos, five tenors, three altos and five bass voices will intersperse the literary and historical numbers of the program with choice selections. A splendid orchestra, led by Mrs. Imogene Avis Palmer, will accompany the chorus. And the Daily News Band of twenty-five pieces will lend its aid.

The real battle of the convention—and the only battle—will be fought Friday, when the annual election of officers will be held. Naturally there is a keen rivalry for the honors to be distributed by such an organization as the Daughters of the Confederacy—and especially in Virginia.

To-morrow morning the opening addresses will be made and in the afternoon annual reports will be read by the nine officers. A reception at the State Normal School will follow, and at night the historical evening of the convention will be held. The feature of this will be Dr. Wayland's lecture on Stonewall Jackson's Valley campaign.

News of the University.
Charlottesville, Va., October 8.—Sir Henry Jones, professor of philosophy at Glasgow University, Scotland, was the guest yesterday of President and Mrs. Alderman Nir Henry stopped off here on his way to Houston, Tex., where he will be one of the inaugural lecturers at the academic festival of the William M.
Eliot Institute. He was shown about the University of Virginia, and before leaving for the South he said that he was delighted with the beauty and dignity of the university.

Professor William Holding Ebbels left at noon yesterday for Houston, he will officially represent the University of Virginia at the opening of the Eliot Institute, and will make one of the principal addresses. Upon his return to Charlottesville, Professor Ebbels will give a lecture about the Institute and the work it is destined to do for the South.

The University of Virginia branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers will inaugurate a series of public lectures to-morrow night, when Joseph W. Papp, of New York, honorary secretary of the parent organization, will deliver a lecture on "The Development of the Electric Engineering."

COURT ASKED TO ORDER ELECTIONS
Marion, Va., October 8.—The Board of Supervisors, at its meeting here today, decided to ask the Circuit Court of Smyth County, at the November term, to order an election on the question of issuing $100,000 per cent thirty-year bonds for Marion magisterial district, and $75,000 similar bonds for St. Clair magisterial district for improving and permanently improving the roads of the districts. As the law provides that the order shall designate the roads to be improved, the board appointed the following committee for Marion district: J. P. Sherfer, R. G. Goodyby, W. E. Copenhaver, Dr. E. V. Sherrill, W. E. Greer, J. A.
Groncloss, George C. Umbarger, G. G.
Killingner, F. S. Eppa, R. W. Greath, B.
T. Sprinkle, J. T. Atkins, E. E. Cropp, J.
S. Wamsley and J. A. Miller, J. L. C. A.
Gerson, D. C. Gollebon, W. K. McGhee, R. E. Copenhaver, James and J. T.
Fry.

For St. Clair district—Martin Houston, E. L. Bonham, J. D. Copenhaver, D. T. Debord, T. P. Curran, D. J.
Blankenbiller, George W. West, L.
B. Chisholm, R. W. Griffiths, A. J.
Stomp, C. L. Jennings, J. W. Lantz, Maurice Hale, J. W. Dutton and R. H.
Ward.

Endorsed with the prospects, these favoring the bond issue have called a meeting of the citizens of the county at the courthouse auditorium Saturday, October 12, for the purpose of organizing a county good roads association.
It is expected that able speakers will be present to address the meeting. A bond issue of $100,000 was voted in Rich Valley District some time ago, and considerable work has already been done on the roads of that district.
